GERMAN ARMY IS REINFORCED

Invaders Continue Attacks on Allies With Unabated Ferocity.

CONSTANTLY ON DUTY.

Desperate Fighting All Along Line—Use Bayonets in Assaults on Towns and Villages.

Berlin (via The Hague). Nov. 11—Fighting in the west continues without decisive results, a statement from the war office declared today. The situation in the Argonne region is favorable, it is asserted, and progress is being made in the vicinity of Ypres.

In the east nothing has occured to indicate that danger of a general Russian invasion is imminent, it is said.

Turkish troops along the Caucasian front have met with signal success driving the Russians from their positions and forcing the fleet bombarding Koslu to retire.

Paris, Nov. 11—There is every indication from reports reaching the war office that the German forces about Ypres have been heavily re-enforced.

The attack of the Germans continue with unabated ferocity, and the troops which have been on constant duty in the trenches in this region are believed to have been relieved from a second line, which is pressing forward with the greatest determination.

The most desperate fighting is reported all along the line. The Germans are attempting to take small towns and villages at the point of the bayonet. The heavy artillery fire from both the allied and German lines has become more violent.

CONTRADICTORY STATEMENT

NEWS OF THE DAY

NEWS OF THE DAY

An avalanche of prosperity such as never been experienced by any people in any country at any time was predicted yesterday at a gathering of 150 credit men of Philadelphia. The optimism of the speakers was tempered with conservatism, and it was the opinion that while golden opportunites awaited the commerce of the Unted States to the South and across the seas, it would be a mistake to rush to South America, headlong, after business that now is and will be seeking our markets.

With national, State and city officials throughout the United States uniting with Canada in a supreme effort to stop the spread of the dread hoof and mouth plague among cattle, the price of beef and other meats yesterday began to soar and a national meat famine with prohibitive prices threatened. While dealers disagreed in predicting the effect of the cattle disease on meat prices, there was a general expectation that prices will go skyward if the spread of the hoof and mouth disease is not stemmed. This belief was strengthened by quotations showing a rise in prices here, where beef went up from 1 to 2 cents a pound to the consumer.

The commander of the Turkish forces at Beirut, in a formal note to the American consul general, intended for the British and French governments, declares that for every Mussulman killed in the bombardment of any open and unfortified port, three British or French subjects will be immediately executed.

An Athens dispatch to the London Exchange Telegraph Company reports that enormous numbers of Christian soldiers are deserting the Turkish army, and that Germany has advised Turkey to avoid further complications in order to be free to act effectively against the Triple Entente.

The London Morning Post's Buchnarest, Roumania, correspondent says a deputation of university professors former cabinet ministers, and politicians, following an audience with King Charles, organized a committee of national action, whose avowed purpose is to prepare the country for intervention in the present war.

According to the Paris Intransigient, the flower of Hugarian aristocracy was wiped out during the fight near Lille. The Austrian casualties lists showed that 867 hussars, every one a scion of a noble Magyar House were killed. They belong to the finest Hungarian cavalry. Practically every illustrious Magyar family is mourning the loss of one of its younger male members.

Following an argument over the European war, W. A. Lindsay, conductor, and John Reynolds, motorman, of the Marietta car line, carmates for the last nine years, killed each other yesterday in a duel at Atlanta. Lindsay shot first, and Reynolds from the floor where he lay dying.

A proclamation issued by the Germans at Brussels specifically threatens, according to a dispatch to Reuter's from Amsterdam, to stop distribution of food by the American relief committee among the unemployed until the idle Belgians go to work.

Reprimanded by a conductor J. D. Fincher for not cooking a steak properly, R. H. Taylor, a cook on the dining car of the east bound Salt Lake Pacific limited, yesterday attacked him with a meat cleaver. Patrons of the dining car were thrown into a panic by the battle to the death that followed, and in which Taylor was shot and killed by the conductor. Fincher gave himself up to the authorities at Las Vegas, N. Mex.

Three new superdreadnoughts of the most powerful type of battleship in the French navy have been launched during the last month in France without any word thereof reaching the outside world. The new battleships are the Normandie, the Gascogne, and the Flandres. Two other superdreadnoughts of the same class, the Languedoc and the Bearn, are now building and will be launched at an early date.

RUSSIA'S FIGHT WITH TURKEY

No Slackening of Speed in Germany By Reason of Sultan's Action.

ADVANCE CONTINUES.

Czar's Troops Believe They willCrush Their Way Through East Prussia, Galicia and Posen.

Petrograd, Nov. 11—The task of dealing with Turkey in the east will n no wise cause a slackening of the pressure being exerted along the German frontier, according to military authorities here today.

Everywhere the advance of the Russians into East Prussia and Posen province continues it is declared here. The momentum of the enormous forces of the Czar, having once been gained, it will not be checked, even though a portion of the army should be withdrawn for a movement against the Turks.

It is the confident belief in Petrograd that the great Russian army will crush its way through East Prussia. Galicia, and Posen by force of its own weight of numbers. Reports from the front declare it is evident that the Kaiser is rushing re-enforcements to his eastern frontier from Belgium. Men of commands reported a week ago to be fighting in Flanders have been taken prisoners in East Prussia, it is declared.

An official statement from the war office declares the German right flank in East Prussia, after stubborn resistance in the region of Lyck, has been pushed back toward the Mazour Lakes. Russians have also reached Mickow in an advance toward Cracow. In Galicia they have crossed the Wisloka and occupied Rzochow, Dynow and Liske.

Reports to the war office declare the Germans are rushing re-enforcements toward Thorn and Posen. All railroad lines are given over to the transportation of troops, which are being concentrated in the line of the Russian advance.

TURKISH TRANSPORTS SUNK

Ships had German Officers and Ammunition on Board.

Petrograd, Nov. 11.—Official communication from the General Staff of the navy, issued yesterday evening, gives the details of the sinking recent y of several Turkish transports. The communication says:

"The commander of the Russian fleet on nearing Port Sangouldak sent two of his ships with some torpedo boats to destroy the building and workshops of the port. This was done successfully. Moreover, a Turkish steamer was sunk.

"At the same time, our scout ship sighted a Turkish military transport filled with soldiers, which was about to put to sea. Our cruiser approached this vessel opened fire and sank it. Then the Russian fleet put to sea.

"Shortly afterward the Russian fleet sighted through the mist a Turkish naval column of two transports, one of which the Midhat Pasha, had hoisted the war pennant. Torpedo boats sent to destroy these transports soon sighted a third one.

"The three transports, laden with ammunition, guns, automobiles and aeroplanes, were sunk. We saved and captured 248 men on the ships, among them several German officers and a staff officer, who was bearing documents. The prisoners declared the transports were to be used to take troops to Trebizond."

It is officially announced that Carl Hans Lody, alias Charles A. Inglis, who was found guilty by a court martial of espionage November 2, has been shot as a spy in the Tower of London. When arrested Lody claimed to be an American, but later confessed he was a German. He had lived in New York and Omaha. In the latter city he married the daughter of Gottlieb Sterz, a brewer, who later divorced him.

CAMPAIGN EXPENSES.

Four of Ten Virginia Representatives Have Filed Their Accounts.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—The final statements of campaign expenses of the congressional candidates are beginning to roll into the office of the clerk of the House of Representatives. Under the campaign expense law passed sometime ago each candidate is required to file a sworn statement of his expense up to fifteen days before the primary or nominating convention, ten days after the primary, fifteen days before election and thirty days after election. Four of the ten Virginia congressmen have filed their final statements.

Congressman Montague was the first to file his statement, declaring that he had no expenses in connection with his election. The expense of his campaign to secure the primary nomination over Louis Wendenburg was $742.75.

Holland's election cost him only $10. He declared that expense in his pre election statement.

Congressman Saunders declared expenses of $2 in his prenomination statement, $59.64 in his pre election and $435.12 was certified in his statement filed yesterday, bringing his total expense up to $496.76.

Congressman Hay spent only $12.77, which was expended for postage, telegrams, etc., and certified in his pre election statement.

HORSES BURNED ON STEAMER.

Captain Think Germans Set Vessel on Fire.

Norfolk, Nov. 11—Seven hundred horses on the British steamer Rembrandt, which caught fire off here early yesterday have been burned to death and their carcasses thrown overboard.

The captain of the ship says that he believes the vessel was purposely set on fire, declaring that Germans had boasted it would be blown up before it reached France. The horses were intended for use by the allies.

The loss to the vesse itself by the fire will be slight.

SHE SANK 22 SHIPS

Emden Was Like Famous Old Confederate Alabama.

The German cruiser Emden which has been destroyed by the Australian ship Sydney has contributed to the history of the war one of its most remarkable chapters. For sheer audacity and success it has few parellels—certainly none since the Alabama, the famous old Confederate warship, was roaming the seas. Twenty-two ships, mostly British have been sunk, one has been captured by the German cruiser.

Since early in August the Emden has been at work. Most of the time she was preying on British shipping in the Indian Ocean, but late last month she suddenly appeared at Penang, on Malacca Strait. It was here that the Emden performed her most daring feat. A fourth smokestack was rigged on her deck and a Japanese flag run up. Thus disguised she steamed boldly into the harbor passed unchallenged under the British guns of the fort, and fired torpedoes which sank the Russian cruiser Jemtchug and a French destroyer. Then she took to her heels and escaped unscratched through the Strait.

The vessels destroyed by the Emden had a total value of about $10,000,000 exclusive of their cargoes.

SIGNS OF WAR IN HOUSE OF LORDS

Rich Robes of Peers and Peeresses Do Not Veil Situation.

TROOPS ARE MISSING

Guy Fawkes Imitators Are Sought by Perfunctory Ceremony of Searching Vaults of Houses.

London, Nov. 1.—Despite the rich robes of peers and peereses, the gay uniforms of heralds and diplomats in the house of lords, there were unmistakable signs of the grim struggle proceeding in Europe when parliament was formally opened today by King George.

Full state marked the ceremony, but the brilliantly uniformed troops which usually line the route from Buckingham Palace to Westminster were missing and for the first time in history khaki clad soldiers participated in a state procession.

In view of the German spy scare the usual perfunctory search of the vaults under parliament for possible imitators of Guy Fawkes, was today of an earnest and thorough nature. The picturesque Yeomen of the Guard carried out their historic search, but Scotland Yard men had performed the task far more efficiently before their arrival.

The King wore a field marshal's uniform. He appeared careworn, but cheerfully acknowledged the enthusiastic plaudits of the thousands lining the streets. The Prince of Wales, a slight figure in khaki, was on duty with the guard of honor outside the house of lords. During the ceremony he was able to slip inside and take his place near the throne.

INDEPENDENT LABOR PARTY.

Carpenters Start Agitation for a Six-Hour Work Day.

Philadelphia, Nov. 11.—Yesterday the real work began in the thirty-fourth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor.

A formal effort to start an agitation for a six-hour work day in all organized trades was launched. A delegate representing the United Brotherhood of Carpenters marched the length of convention hall and showed a resolution calling for a six-hour day into the hands of Samuel Gompers, the president of the Federation, who was in the chair. Mr. Gompers passed the resolution to the secretary for later action. The United Brotherhood of Carpenters wish the convention to exert its weight to establish the six-hour day in all trades upon the ground that the eight-hour day is enervating and excessive.

Like other resolutions offered by various delegations, that of the Carpenters was referred to the resolution committee. There is a possibility that it may be reported favorably later in the week, but it is doubtful if it will get the support of the convention at the present session.

What was regarded as one of the most important resolutions offered and one which is likely to get unanimous support in a general vote, calls for the organization of an Independent Labor Party in all states and municipalities to be financed and generally suported at elections by the allied labor unions.

NEGRO KEEPS POSSE AT BAY.

Murderer of Two Kills Himself After Being Mortally Wounded.

Victoria, Texas, Nov. 11.—Louis Friar, a negro, barricaded himself in a cabin here about daylight today and kept at bay a posse of eight officers and several volunteers for more than an hour. He killed himself after being mortally wounded.

The trouble started when Friar killed two negroes, wounded two other men, one of them white. He killed Willie Brown, a negro woman with whom he resided, and also Tom Allen, a negro who tried to protect her.

Josiah Thomas, a negro, and H. C. Grossman, a night watchman, who still was on duty in the neighborhood were called to the place by the shooting. Friar shot Gossman in the head, and Thomas in the head and arm. Both are expected to recover. Friar then barricaded himself in the Brown woman's house. More than 200 shots were fired into the building before the negro killed himself.

BATTLEFIELDS OF EUROPE

Mrs. DeVries Lecture at Norton Memorial Proves Interesting.

An interesting and timely lecture on the battlefields of Western Europe was given last night at the Norton Memorial of St. Paul's Church, by Mrs. Emma Barlow De Vries, a well known physician of Washington who has been spending a number of months abroad, returning at the outbreak of hostilities.

During her travels she took a large number of photographs and from her collection were selected the eighty-five interesting views with which the lecture was illustrated.

Mrs. De Vries did not enter into a discussion of the causes leading up to the outbreak of the present war nor were the movements of the contending armies described, but her word pictures of the places where the battles are being fought and descriptions of the lives of the people before the great contest began were graphic and interesting.

The lecture was commenced with a brief historical resume of the battles that had been fought in the past on the same ground which is now being used by the Germans and Austrians in their attempt to capture Paris. Maps were used to show how natural conditions have made this particular territory so suitable for a fighting place of great armies.

Commencing with the Rhine, Mrs. De Vries took her audience through Western Germany, into Holland, Belgium, and the Duchy of Luxemburg, leaving them in France. Many amusing incidents were given describing the characteristics of the people.

UNITED STATES AND THE PORTE

Asks Explanation of Threats Made by the Ottoman Government.

WOULD ALLAY FEARS.

No News From Cruiser North Carolina Now in Turkish Waters—Reports of Disaster Not Credited.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Officials of the State Department are making every effort to learn whether the Turkish govrnment is officially represented in the threat made by the Turkish commander at Beirut that he would order the execution of three British or French subjects for every Musselman killed in the bombardment of any unfortified ports.

This threat, communicated to the American consul-general in Turkey and reported to the State Department, has caused considerable uneasiness. The American Government is acting for the British and French at Constantinople, and would necessarily have to take official cognizance of such threats.

Information concerning the attitude of the Beirut commander reached the State Department yesterday, and immediately efforts were made to get in touch with Ambassador Morganthau, at Constantinople. The ambassador, it is understood, has been requested to ask the Turkish government whether it stands resposible for the utterances of the Beirut official.

The State Department is particularly anxious to allay any fears in this country regarding the safety of Americans in Turkey, and the report that the Beirut commander had refused to hold himself responsible for any uprising against Christians has caused some alarm.

Up to this time the Turkish officials have shown every deference to the wishes of the American Government, and have been more than friendly in their efforts to protect American citizens.

"No news is good news," was the reliance today of navy officials to discredit rumors of a mishap to the cruiser North Carolina in Turkish waters.

IDLENESS AN ELECTION PLOT

Mills That Played Old Dodge Are Now Resuming Operations.

Albany, N. Y. Nov. 11—State officials confirm Secretary Bryan's charge that large manufacturers laid off men before election and are now resuming operations. On the highest authority it is learned that several New York industries are accused of practicing this game, and that there is ample evidence to connect closely dismissals and temporary suspension of work with the election. It is charged that in Schenectady several thousand men in a great electrical industry were laid off a week before election, and that orders have been issued to resume operations with all men taken back, Similar charge is made against certain collar factories in Troy and one glove factory in another city has been named.

Opposition of manufacturing interest to Democratic Administration in both Washington and Albany is alleged to be due to tariff reduction. The charge is also made that railroads and high financiers used devious means to defeat the Democratic ticket because of President Wilson's anti-Trust policy.

According to Democratic leaders, immediately after the indictment of New Haven directors there appeared signs of bitter hostility. The Republican campaign became flush with money. On at least one great railroad in New York State vague word seemed to have been passed that the Democratic ticketwould not be supported.

Mr. Brockett again called Council's attention to the troubles with gas in the city. He said that he had become convinced from his personal experience that most of these troubles could be corrected if the gas office was notified of their existence.

Mr. Monroe stated that the light committee was doing everything in its power to get these troubles corrected.

In reply to a question from Mr. Brockett, Mr. Bryan stated that progress on the new high school building was being delayed on account of finances. This matter had been taken up with the local bankers, and he had every confidence that it would be adjusted within the next few days.

The President then directed Mr. Bayles to notify the Aldermen that Council had finished its business, and was ready to adjourn.

When Mr. Bayles returned with the information that the Aldermen had already adjourned Mr. Brockett called Council's attention to the election of a health officer, which had been scheduled for this meeting. He also spoke of the election of school trustees and police commissioner, saying that he believed this matter should be attended to promptly, and not allowed to go from meeting to meeting, after the terms of the officers had expired.

Council then adjourned.

Just two years ago we brought to Washington our first importations and selections of Liberty things, and they were received with such enthusiasm and approval that we have had to greatly increase our assortments—in fact, they are more than double theoriginal quantities.

Every article bears the distinguishing mark of Liberty originality—whether it be the pattern and coloring of the soft silken fabrics, a dainty perfume jar, a beautiful garment, an odd toy or an exquisite piece of pottery there is nothing that can equalor approach them.

VIRGINIA TO AID BELGIANS.

Relief work for the sufferers in Belgium has assumed such proportions in Virginia, and the responses have been so generous, that it is now proposed that Virginia load a ship with supplies at Norfolk and send it to the Belgian sufferers.

The ship will probably be furnished by the Carnegie Foundation or by the Secretary of the United States Navy. The railways will, without doubt, carry the provisions to Norfolk from any point in Virginia free and thus all transportation charges will be eliminated.

This suggestion will doubtless meet with a hearty response from all sections of the Old Dominion. Six times as many people as are in Alexandria are at this time without homes and facing starvation in unhappy Belgium. Most of these unfortunates are not provided with suitable clothing to meet the exigencies of winter. A large proportion, too, are fatherless, the breadwinners having sacrificed their lives while opposing the invasion of their country by the Germans.

A year ago these people had placed their crops in cribs, and were gathered around family hearths as happy as those in our own peaceful and blessed country. But the dogs of war, turned loose upon their homes and smiling fields, has brought about a terrible transition. The land is now being trodden down by their mighty conquerers, while the suffering ones are shivering and gazing upon blackened chimneys.

It is stated in today's dispatches that the movement towards sending the necessaries of life to these needy people is not relished by Germany, and that the Teutons may refuse to allow the food ships to discharge their cargoes. We prefer to believe that this allegation is without foundation, as the German Emperor surely has no inclination to add starvation to the horrors the Belgians have experienced since this distressing war began.

A MARKED CONTRAST.

The opening of the British Parliament today was lacking some of the pleasant features of bygone years. The spirit of war overshadowed everything. King George appeared careworn and grim, while brilliant military uniforms were conspicuous by their absence.

Royalty appeared in the usual glittering robes, but these did not veneer the serious ordeal through which the country is now passing.

For many years, or during the greater part of her reign, the late Queen Victoria in her speech from the throne was able to use the stereotyped words—that the country over which she presided was at peace with the world. It is not so now. The flower of the kingdom is at the front battling for the existence of the great British empire.

In these troublous times, when there is no telling what may take place, the recollection of Guy Fawkes caused a thorough search of the vaults of the two houses. Scotland Yard detectives had previously performed this duty,but recollections of the fiend who many years ago planned to blow up the Parliament caused another perfunctory search to be made before the proceedings commenced.

DEATH OF C. H. DARLEY.

Former Southern Railway Engineer Passes Away This Morning.

Charles H. Darley, a well known and esteemed resident, died this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Julia V. Nalls, No. 517 south Alfred street. The deceased had been in ill-health about a year. He is survived by a widow and four children—Maynard, Fisher, and Charles Darley, and Mrs. Ruth Gates, all of Lynchburg.

Mr. Darley was a native of Alexandria. He was a son of Charles and Sarah Darley. The deceased was an engineer on the Southern Railway about twenty years, but had up to a few years ago been in the employ of the Washington and Old Dominion Railway. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and a member of a Masonic Lodge in Lynchburg.

A GREAT MOVIE SHOW.

Special Attraction at the Surprise Theatre Tonight.

The story of "A Gentleman from Mississippi," which will be seen at the Surprise Theatre tonight, revolves around the adventures in Washington of a newly elected senator from Mississippi, fat, jovial Bill Langdon, who is sent to the capitol by the "trust" interests as an easy mark, who will coincide with their ideas through friendship for the men who put him there. The old gentleman, a cavalier of the old school, has a high sense of honor and, seeing through their schemes, defeats them and comes off victorious in a fight that threatens to destroy him financially, politically, and, what was even more vital to him, to smirch the honor of his family. His daughters becomes infatuated with Washington social life and the elder becomes engaged to a congressman, Norton, who tries to put through a bill placing a naval base at a point in the Gulf of Mexico, where he has persuaded his fiancee and her brother to invest their money. Old Langdon discovers Norton's treachery and breaks the engagement.

"Bud" Haines, a bright young newspaper correspondent in Washington, has become acquainted with Langdon shortly after the latter's arrival at the capitol and becomes the private secretary of the new senator. Knowing the perils of Washington political life, he steers the old man safely past the reefs and captures the old man's daughter.

The old man falls a victim to the charms of a dashing widow, while the pert stenographer who furnishes quite a bit of the comedy, surrenders to a persistent young reporter.

WANT FEDERAL DEPARTMENT

Southern Doctors Wants Health officer In Cabinet With Supreme Authority.

Richmond, Nov. 11—Demands were made at the session of the Southern Medical Association yesterday afternoon upon the federal government to create a cabinet officer to be known as the secretary of public health, and upon States, counties and municipalities to move together to secure the establishment of a more perfect system for the preservation of health and the prevention of disease. Many phases of the health problem were discussed during the sessions of the association, its sections and auxilliaries and suggestions looking to the solution of the many puzzles making up the great problem were offered in the scores of technical papers presented.

A symposium of tuberculosis featured the joint session yesterday afternoon of the section on medicine and on public health. The value of knowledge of military surgery to civilian surgeons was the most interesting of the discussion before the section of surgery while trachoma and the reduction of preventable diseases interested the section on eye ear, nose and throat.

The joint session of the section on medicine and the section on public health was opened with the address of the chairman, Dr. Robert Wilson Jr., of Charleston S. C., who presented "Some Medical Aspects of the American Negro."

Declaring that the negro brought from Africa many diseases and sowed them in the Caucausian race and that the negro has been found fruitful soil for tuberculosis, making him a serious menace in the home, Dr. Wilson said that the negro's health, in large measure, constitutes a public health problem.

"If we are to solve this problem,' he contended, "we must break ourselves of the habit of taking things for granted and accepting assumptions for facts. We must study the negro after separating the mulatto from the pure stock.

FIRE THREATENS RESORT

Blue Ridge Mountains in Virginia Are Ablaze.

Luray, Va., Nov., 11—The most destructive forest fires in years are raging in the Blue Ridge Mountains threatening the numerous summer resorts in this county. Owners of the resorts are paying almost any amount to men to fight the flames. Only after a hard struggle was Skyland Park a resort owned by Washington and Baltimore parties, located on top of the Blue Ridge, six miles from Luray saved. Owners of buildings, who had been notified that their property was in the fire zone and who attempted to reach the top of the mountain, were driven back by the flames as they leaped from tree to tree.

FOUND DEAD IN CHURCH YARD.

Was Murdered With a Blunt Instrument—No Clue to His Identity.

Suffolk, Va., Nov. 11.—An unknown negro, dressed in overalls, was found dead late Saturday evening, lying on the church ground at Berea Christian Church, by a colored woman who was passing.

The body of the man was twenty feet from the railroad track his pockets were turned inside out and no money was found on his person.

He had wounds on his forehead and the back of his head and an examination by physicians showed that they had been inflicted with a blunt instrument.

Nothing has yet been learned as to his name or how he was murdered.

This is the third hold up which has taken place recently in that section. Last week an old colored man was held up by three negroes on the road near Driver, and between two automobiles, which were in sight of each other.

Earlier in the same week another negro was found dead on the road near Churchland and no clue to his identity has yet been discovered.

Kills Four Persons.

Bristol, Va., Nov. 11.—Engineer Charles Boyd, one of the most efficient in the service of the Southern Railway, Knoxville division, has a record of four persons killed by his engine within little more than 24 hours. Twenty-six hours after his engine had killed a little boy in a Bristol suburb the same engine struck and killed a woman and two boys at McMillan, ten miles east of Knoxville. The three who met death at one time had just stepped from one of the double tracks to the other to allow a freight train to pass. Their eyes being on the passing freight train, they neither saw nor heardthe fast passenger train, which was then rounding a curve almost at them. Their bodies were mutilated. The mangled bodies were taken to Knoxville, where, at last accounts, they had not been identified.

ALLEGED ASSASSIN.

Negro Wanted for Murder in North Carolina Arrested in Richmond.

Richmond, Nov. 11.—With the aid of Assitant Postmaster Ross Southward, Detective Sergeant Krengel yesterday arrested a negro giving the name of Wallace Williams in the lobby of the postoffice and locked him up at the First Station on suspicion of being a murderer from North Carolina.

The negro called at the postoffice about 11 o'clock this morning for a letter from Pembroke, N. C., and was promptly taken into cutsody. When he showed a disposition to resist, Mr. Southward, who happened to be nearby, rushed up and lent the detective assistance while handcuffs were being placed on the man.

The negro's real name is believed to be Aaron Dupree and he is alleged to have waylaid and assassinated A. W. Brown, a prominent farmer, of Hoke county, on the night of December 18, 1913.

He will be held here pending the arrival of North Carolina authorities.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get At the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested food, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
